Team Building

Conflict Resolution

Thank you for your counsel, thank you for your empathy, and lastly, thank you for your friendship. I have never been one to seek out the help of therapists. However, after strong referrals and our subsequent meetings, I am glad I sought your help. I have learned greatly. I am being the more assertive, confident, and deserving executive that you helped make me. Amazing! Three to four months of meetings have helped turn a lifetime of bad habits around. You are wonderful."

HR & Termination

Crisis & Threat

From a recommendation from our Labor Attorney, we first contacted Rosalinda for one specific management problem. Once we started working with her it became apparent that she had valuable input for us in many other problematic areas. Rosalinda continues to be an indispensable resource in helping us streamline our procedures, set and meet goals, and be more productive. She has helped us neutralize employee conflicts, become better managers, and has given us skills to work efficiently as a team. Rosalinda's personality and work are results oriented. We saw results immediately."

- Ms. V., Senior Vice President of Administration, HR and Operations, November 2003

Addiction & Alcoholism

Relationship Recovery

Collaborative Divorce

Married For Life

Rosalinda made me understand how my company, employees, and I would benefit by my acting more as the CEO she believed me to be. This had long been a frustration for me. As the owner for over 20 years, I now command more respect and have my departments working 10% to 50% more cooperatively and productively. We are glad Rosalinda is part of our team."

- Mr. T., President, August 2003

"Rosalinda intervened, and took over the care and management of the Alcoholism treatment and recovery of a senior partner. She worked closely with the hospital and privately with our partner. That partner has been sober for 6 years and his productivity and life have improved markedly."

- Mr. S., Managing Partner, January 2003
